Grotek Solo Tek Grow, 10L (GT10104367)

SOLO-TEK by Grotek is a complete, soil/soilless, revolutionary organic-based nutrient system. It is a scientifically-designed one-part nutrient system, where nutrients and supplements from different organic/inorganic sources are combined to provide an ideal nutrient environment and optimum plant production. SOLO-TEK is comprised of a minimum of 50% organically-derived plant nutrients, with all plant growth stimulants 100% organic, derived from natural plant resources. SOLO-TEK also contains a variety of amino acids, vitamins, enzymes, and carbohydrates, all derived from natural plant sources. SOLO-TEK is the only product of its kind that possesses such a very high nutrient concentration, along with organic chelating agents. This one-part solution will provide everything the plant needs during various stages of growth. And all growers from professional to novice will find it very easy to use.
