SOLOTEK GrowA complete one-part nutrient system
SOLOTEK

is a complete, soil/soilless, revolutionary organic-based nutrient system. It is a scientifically designed one-part nutrient system, where nutrients and supplements from different organic/inorganic sources are combined to provide an ideal nutrient environment and optimum plant production. SOLOTEK is comprised of a minimum of 50% organically-derived plant nutrients and all plant growth stimulants are 100% organic, derived from natural plant resources. SOLOTEK is the only product of its kind that possesses a very high nutrient concentration, along with organic chelating agents. This one-part solution will provide everything the plant needs during various stages of growth. And all growers from professional to novice, will find it very easy to use. SOLOTEK also contains a variety of Amino Acids, Vitamins, Enzymes and Carbohydrates, all derived from natural plant sources.
